
FAQs for Fullscript Patients

Who is Emerson Ecologics?

Emerson Ecologics is a long-standing player in the integrative healthcare industry. The company has supported the practice of healthy living as a leading distributor of vitamins, supplements, and natural health products for over 40 years.

Does this acquisition change my ability to get supplements on Fullscript?

Not at all. Supporting you on your wellness journey is our top priority. You will still have access to your supplements through Fullscript. If anything, we plan on making your experience even better.

I am a customer of both Wellevate and Fullscript. Will I be able to continue placing/tracking orders via the customer portal on Wellevate?

Yes, you will be able to access the same online order service features as you always have.

Who do I contact if I have questions about an order or about my Fullscript account?

Please contact Fullscript's customer support team here.
